

Wicked Absalom

(2 Samuel 14:25-18:18)

David's son Absalom was one of the most handsome men in the whole land, but he had an evil heart. His father loved him, but Absalom loved only himself. He wanted to be king of Israel in place of his father, so he tricked people into thinking he was a great and kind person who would be a good king. Then he took an army of thousands of men to attack David and kill him. David asked his soldiers not to harm his son in the battle. To find out what happened to Absalom, follow the directions.
